

NL Camera

The human ear doesn't even come close.

The NL Camera is a brand new way to locate problems using sound. The results can be uploaded via WiFi to the cloud, where our sophisticated algorithms help you determine the problem.

One of the first indications of a problem is usually sound, before thermal radiation. The NL Camera hears sound, even when it's completely noiseless to the human ear.

Browse the results online or connect them directly to an existing system.

Distance:

Up to over 100m, depending on the environment

Frequency range: 2 kHz - 31 kHz
(regular sounds & ultrasound)

Usage time: >7h with an external battery